26. Workshop of mock moot court! (6 October 2022)

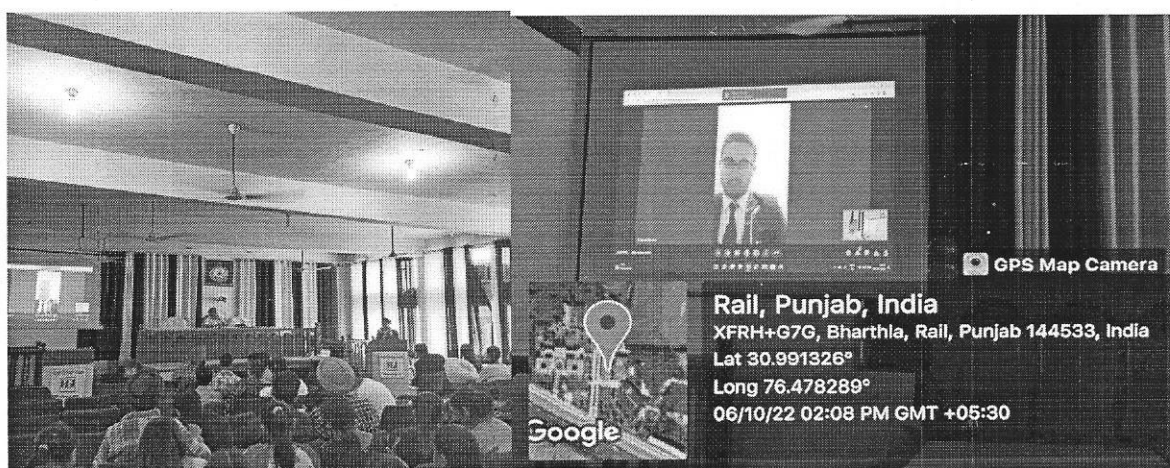

“Knowledge comes from learning. Wisdom comes from living.” This has been the idea behind today’s workshop which included a mock moot court for the first year students under the supervision of Dr. Charu Dureja who during the session gave important pointers to each and every student and also explained the Court Decorum.

The judge for the same was Mr. Ajitabh Mishra who articulately and comprehensively gave his suggestions to the teams and also encouraged the spectators. The demo was given in a proper manner wherein a timekeeper and a reader were present as well.

After the draw of lots two participating teams were, one from the petitioner’s side TC01 i.e. Ms. Uravshi, Ms. Rohini and Mr. Aryan and the team from the respondent’s side TC02 i.e. Mr. Shivam, Ms. Sahej and Mr. Chetan. Each team was given 20 minutes for the arguments and 10 minutes for the Rebuttal. Last 10 minutes were allotted for the question answer round wherein both the teams answered quite confidently.

The first year was more than excited. A lot of encouragement and motivation was given by all the moot court members to the students of first semester as well. The student coordinators for the same were Ms. Stuti Puri, Mr. Aayush Garg, Mr. Anmolpreet Singh and Mr. Shiva Narang. The photographs are attached.

In a nutshell, the workshop was a success as the Main objective was to create a push for the first year students to take interest in practical knowledge and lean towards more participation at an early stage of Law school.
